The War Conscription at Aden.
Calcutta, November 26.—In reply to the Bombay Chamber of Commerce, the Government of India has intimated that the Secretary of State cannot hold out any immediate prospect of the removal of the conscription at Aden on telegrams to Bombay and Cape Town, but the arrangement is giving that the restrictions will be removed or modified in the interests of the mercantile community at the earliest possible moment.

Egyptian Affairs.
London, November 26.—Sir John Ald started for Egypt and hopes to meet the Khedive at Assou.

Sensational Affair in Calcutta.

and assaulting them on the suspicion that Mr. McGrath had written a paragraph in a local weekly. The Court was crowded with Europeans.

Allahabad, November 26.—The Pioneer much regrets to hear of the death from cholera of Mohanpurva on Thursday evening of Mr. E. W. Smith, Archaeological Surveyor of the North-West Provinces. Mr.

ment in these provinces in 1885 as Asst.

Fatal Accident to a Soldier.
Bombay, Nov. 26.—It is alleged that, as the result of a spree, a soldier in the King's Shropshire Light Infantry at Poona has been killed. Two soldiers doing duty at Kirkree, took a rubbish cart and drove it about until it fell over, when one of the men was crushed under it. His ribs were fractured and his lungs pierced, causing his death.

Boer Prisoners at Bombay.

the public attention to a statement of the written.

The Political Crisis in Greece.
November 24.—Affairs are quieter at Athens, though cavalry still occupy the streets.
A tumultuous sitting of the Chamber took place yesterday, ending in a vote of confidence in the Government by 109 against 87 votes.

It transpired during the debate that the Queen originally inspired the modern translation of the Gospels, finding that during the war soldiers were unable to understand the ancient Greek editions. Speakers on the Opposition side hinted that secret councils in the Palace promoted the translation, and suggested that the hand of Russia is underneath.

Later.—The Greek Cabinet has resigned.
The Premier holding that they must leave to a new Cabinet the burden of enquiry

SOUTH AFRICAN NEWS.

London, November 23.—The authorities have nipped in the bud a conspiracy at Johannesburg and twenty arrests have been made.

A number of engagements are reported from the Transvaal, Orange River Colony, and East Griqualand in which 9 Boers were killed and 32 captured. One British officer was killed and 3 wounded.

The 18th, 62nd and 75th Field Batteries have been ordered to Kirkree and leave South Africa immediately on board the 'City of Yarmouth.'

Eighty of Ascherman's Commando have been captured after a week's close hustling in the Orange River Colony.

A surrendered burgher was shot at Johannesburg yesterday for persuading others to join a commando.

A beginning has been made in the settlement of land in the Orange River Colony, and several returned Yeomanry have gone to occupy Government farms in the Thabaneu district.

The offer of Canada to raise 600 more liersdorp mentioned in the telegram of the 21st instant, Major Fisher was killed and wards released.

There were doubtless other casualties.
Major Fisher's force was surrounded and the horses stampeded.

The Boers lost ten. Colonel Remington's Column, which came up in support, apparently suffered a slight loss.

November 25.—Mr W. T. Stead and the Rev. Harold Holt, pro-Boer, stood bail for Dr. Kitchener.

It is stated that the 11th Hussars in Egypt are to go to the Cape.

A combined movement of various columns near Reitz has resulted in 39 Boers being captured and some killed.

Despatch from Lord Kitchener shows that the bulk of Major Fisher's force was captured by the Boers and released. Colonel Remington pursued and scattered the enemy, capturing eight.

November 26.—The Cape Gazette announces that the Colony resumes control of the Colonial forces in certain districts.

A good response has been made to the invitation for Militia Battalions to volunteer for the front.

The Swedish Consulate at Bombay, Madras, and Colombo have reported to their Government that everything is satisfactory with the Scandinavian Boer prisoners, and that their companies are friendly.

Lord Kitchener's weekly report brings the total Boer losses for November up to 1,387.

The Bloemfontein system is being successfully extended in the Transvaal and the Orange River Colony, ensuring an effective hold on portions of the country.

INTERESTING CEREMONY AT SHANGHAI.

The following paragraph is taken from the N.-C. Daily News of the 4th inst.:- It is true in all armies that the regiment claims the lives of all, and so goes on for ever. Still in the German army there are men who are not forgotten, whose names are carried into battle, and to whose memory their comrades pay honour. These are the standard-bearers who fall before the enemy. Tradition commands that such a death should be followed by a ceremony, and so it was yesterday. A certain standard-bearer, during the fighting in the North, fell in an engagement near the Great Wall. His name went home to the Fatherland, and there the Kaiser had fashioned a silver ring, which bears that name, and the date and place at which it ceased to represent a man. This ring came out in due course to China, and yesterday was the day set apart for the necessary ceremony of affixing the ring to the colours. It took place in the morning, on a plot of ground far out on the right of the Public Road. There the German force in Shanghai was drawn up in the form of a square, in the centre of which was a stand covered with the national flag. Punctually at half-past eleven Colonel Count Schlippenbach arrived, was greeted by the principal officers of the army and navy present, and walked to the centre of this square, followed by Mr. C. Stephani, the representative of the German community here, and one or two other civilians. A deep "Heil" greeted him as he reached the stand, and he forthwith made a speech to the troops in relation to the occasion which had brought about this parade. The name of the Kaiser was afterwards uttered, and then, while the troops presented arms, the colours borne by the dead man were brought forward and laid upon the stand. The ring was affixed, and then came the ceremony of driving in the nails which are to hold it in place. Colonel Count Schlippenbach, the senior naval officer present, Mr. Stephani, certain other officers and finally all the comrades of the standard-bearer who had been present when he fell, advanced and struck these nails with a hammer. This over the colours—while again the men presented arms—returned to their place, and shortly were escorted from the ground with music. This practically ended the ceremony, for there remained only the marching away in various directions of the men who had not accompanied the beringed standard.

'What
to give'
is the question of the hour. The best gift for your wife is a Policy of Life Insurance. Clothes will wear out.
A piano will get out of tune. Jewelry will become old-fashioned. Brice-Brace will break. Most things deteriorate with age, BUT NOT A POLICY OF LIFE ASSURANCE,
the older it gets the more valuable it becomes.
